Press Release

Cheverly Police Department is Seeking Information in the Identity and Locations of Several Burglary Suspects

Cheverly, Prince George's County, Maryland . . . The Cheverly Police Department's Special Response Team is seeking information in the Identification and Location of several suspects, as well as well any vehicles involved in a string of residential Breaking and Enterings that began in early November and is continuing as of the date of this Press Release.

The Breaking and Enterings have all occurred during daytime hours. Investigators believe the suspects are arriving in newer unknown model vehicles. The suspects then knock at the front door, and upon realizing no one is home the suspects then proceed to gain entry to the residence by way of a rear window. The suspects have taken Electronic Devices, Jewelry, and Credit Cards.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to call the Cheverly Police Department's Special Response Team Investigative Section at (301) 341-1055.
